Sustainable raw materials

SIBU COMBS do not only convince with their aesthetic effect, but also on an ecological level. Both the natural fiber carrier and the paper design surface are FSC®-certified. This means these products are made from material from exemplary managed, FSC® certified forests, recycled material and other controlled sources.

Sustainability is not only important to us when it comes to production. If your SIBU COMBS are no longer needed, they can even be disposed of as cardboard packaging and hence be recycled after the self-adhesive layer has been removed.

Watch out for our products with the FSC certificate!
